Dear Mr. de Bobula:

Your letter of October 9, addressed to General Smith, has been referred to my office for action.

I shall be pleased to look into the situation and see if we cannot reach a satisfactory solution on what I hope is a misunderstanding. You understand, of course, that we cannot act as a collection agency nor can we give orders to an employee on her private business, but we are sure that [REDACTED] is as anxious as you are to clear this matter up.

STATINTL

I will let you know as soon as I have any further information, and meanwhile if you have received satisfaction I would appreciate it if you would let me know.

Very truly yours,

LAWRENCE R. HOUSTON
General Counsel
